

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

- 4 DENCISO, MARTIN FERNANDEZ, Suma de Geographia que trata de todas las partidas y Provincias del Mundo, en especial de las Indias Sevilla.
Folio, black letter, 10*l.* 10*s.*

Very fine copy, extremely rare, and apparently the first book printed in Spanish, relating to America;—unknown to Robertson.

Enciso having gained a considerable sum in St. Domingo by practising law, was induced by Ojeda to join him in an expedition of discovery and conquest to the continent of America. After suffering great hardships and hair-breadth escapes, which are related by Herrera, he returned to Spain, and published this work for the instruction of Charles V. The account of America is principally from his own observations, and his account of his intimation to the Indians of Cenu to surrender to the King of Spain, one of the most singular relations that ever escaped the scrutiny of the Spanish Inquisition. In his Account of Africa, he speaks of a Nation in the Interior, skilled in the making of all sorts of Arms of iron and steel.

1523.

- 5 CARTA TERCERA de relacion : embiada por Fernando Cortes al Emperador Carlos V. Sevilla.
Folio, black letter, 10l. 10s.

The original editions of the letters of Cortes are among the rarest books known. This copy wants the last leaf, which is supplied by a fac simile. It once belonged to Diego de Colmenares, who flourished in the early part of the 17th century, who supplied the leaf by a translation from Ramusio, not being able, even in his time, to find another copy.

1526.

13 LEYES Y ORDENANZAS echas nuevamente por S. M. para la governacion de las Indias y buen tratamiento y conservacion de los Indios, etc. Alcala.
Folio, black letter, pp. 26. 21l.

These are the laws issued by Charles V., for the regulation of the government of the Conquests of the Spaniards in the New World, and for the better treatment of the Indians, and limiting the partitions of lands among the Conquerors, which occasioned the insurrection in Peru, headed by Gonzalo Pizarro, who, in consequence, finally ended his life upon a scaffold.

This first collection of printed laws relating to the new world, is of the greatest rarity. No author speaks of their having been printed, and as they were soon after revoked, it is highly probable that the edition was suppressed.

The articles relating to the better usage of the Indians were the fruit of the unremitting exertions of the benevolent Las Casas.

14 DOCTRINA CHRISTIANA para Instruccion y Information de los Indios: por manera de historia: compuesta por el muy reverendo padre fray Pedro de Cordova: primer fundador de la Orden de los Predicadores en las Islas del Mar oceano, etc.—Impressa en MEXICO; en casa de Juan Cromberger, que sancta gloria aya, etc.

A volume in small quarto of 60 pages, not numbered, with signatures from A to D: black letter, the type similar to that used in Seville, and other parts of Spain, about the same period. This is beyond a doubt the earliest book printed in the NEW WORLD, and shows that the honour of having carried this wonderful invention there, is due to JUAN CROMBERGER, whose name appears in many important works printed in SEVILLE, from the early part of the century to the year 1544, in which the CRONICA DE VALERA was printed in his house, with the same addition to his name, "Que sancta gloria haya," (signifying that he no longer existed.) It is probable, therefore, that he died on his way to Mexico, or soon after his arrival, and that Juan Pablos, who afterwards styles himself the first printer in Mexico, was a journeyman printer who went with him. The Reverend Mr. Cotton, in his Typographical Gazetteer, who gives, on the authority of the Bibliotheca Mexicana of Eguiara, as the first book printed in the new world, the "Ordinationes legumque Collectiones pro Conventu Juridico Mexicano, Mexici per Joannem Paulum Brissensium, 1549, folio, makes, in the true spirit of a genuine bibliosophist, the following apostrophe in regard to it: "But where, a man may feelingly exclaim, is so interesting and valuable a relic now to be found? has it never slept beyond the confines of its native country? or if a single copy has chanced to have been conveyed to Europe, does it still slumber amid the dust and gloom of the Escorial? or still unhappier, has it gone the way of every copy of its elder brother the Mentz Donatus, of which not even a fragment, a ci git, remains to bless the eyes, and empty the pockets of the curious and keen collector. I deeply regret my utter inability to offer any satisfaction on this point. Literary research is at present at a very high point of activity, and if such a volume be by any accident discovered, let us hope that this country (England) may find for it a safe and permanent home."

- 15 MEDINA: Arte de Navegar en que se contienen todas las reglas, declaraciones y avisos que à la buena navegacion son necesarias y se deven saber Valladolid. Folio, black letter, 3l. 3s.

1546.

- 16 DENCISO: Suma de Geographia, que trata de todas las partidas y provincias del mundo en especial de las Indias. Agora nuevamente enmendada de algunos defectos que tenia en la mpression pasada Sevilla. Folio, black letter, 3l. 3s.

An indifferent copy, but an exact reprint of the edition of 1519, which see.

1547.

- 17 OVIEDO: Coronica de las Indias. La Hystoria General de las Indias agora nuevamente impressa, corregida y enmendada, con la Conquista del Peru (por Francisco de Xerez.) Folio, black letter, 10l. 10s. Salamanca.
This work of Oviedo is the fountain head from whence most succeeding Books relating to America.

writers have drawn their accounts of the early occurrences in the new world. Oviedo resided more than twenty years in America: he says, "he went there without a grey hair, and returned covered with them."

1548.

- 18 ISOLARIO di Benedetto Bordone nel qual se ragiona di tutte le isole del mondo, etc. Ricoretti et di nuovo ristampato con la giunta del Monte del oro nouvementeritrovato Venetia. Folio, maps, 2l. 2s.

- 19 ———, another edition, no date.

This edition was probably published before 1540. At the end is a copy of a letter from the Prefetto of New Spain, giving an account of the conquest of Peru, by Pizarro, in 1533. At p. 10 is a plan of the great city of Temistitan (Mexico.)

- 20 LIBRO de la Cosmographia de Pedro Apiano, el qual trata dela description del mundo, etc. Anveres. Quarto, with moveable schemes, 15s.

- 21 CORTES: Breve compendio de la Sphera y de la Arte de Navegar, etc. Sevilla. Folio, black letter, bad copy, 1l. 1s.

1552.

 Folio, black letter, 5*l.* 5*s.*

Only the first part of this Chronicle was ever published. "It is written with so little art, and such an apparent regard for truth, that one must regret the loss of the other part of his work." = Robertson. The II. and III. parts in MS. were seen in Madrid some years ago, but it is not known what became of them.

Londini in ædibus Guilhelmi Powell.

A beautiful copy, bound in Russia, 6l. 6s.

Small 4to, black letter.

With Bellerio's map, supposed by some to belong to the work. It is also found in the Antwerp edition of Gomara, Cieza, &c.

Eden was the first Englishman who undertook to present in a collective form the astonishing results of that spirit of maritime enterprize which had been every where awakened by the discovery of America. Nor was he a mere compiler. We are indebted to him for several original voyages of great curiosity and value. He is not exempt from error, but in point of learning, accuracy and integrity, is certainly superior to Hakluyt; yet it is undoubted, that while the name of the latter, like that of Vespucci, has become indelibly associated with the New World, his predecessor is very little known. The circumstances which first inspired the author with a resolution to prepare the work are told with much simplicity. He was a spectator of the public entry into London of Philip and Mary. As the splendid pageant swept by, in all its pomp, pride and circumstance, amidst the tumultuous acclamations of the populace, the array of functionaries, civil and military, and the deafening bursts of martial music, he describes himself as almost lifted out of self-command by the excitement of the scene, and at the crisis when the royal pair actually passed near him, he was ready to break out into some wild sally of enthusiasm. Restrained happily from this piece of indiscretion, he resolved to set about some work which he might, in due season, exhibit as the offspring of his teeming loyalty, and humbly crave for it the royal blessing. The work is rendered more precious by information scattered through it, derived from the great seamen of that day, with whom the author's turn of mind led him to associate. In one chapter he speaks of "the voyages of that worthy owide man Sebastian Cabote, yet livynge in Englande."—

Biddle's Memoir of Sebastian Cabot.

See the account of Wille's edition of this work in 1577.

- 31 NOVUS ORBIS regionum, etc. (see 1532) nunc novis navigationibus auctus, etc. Basileæ.

1556.

- 32 DESCRIPTION de l'Afrique tierce partie du monde, écrite de notre tems par Jean Leon, Africain, etc. Lyons.
Folio, 2 vols. 4l. 4s.

One would hardly expect to find under this title a collection of Voyages and Travels in Asia, Africa and America, translated from Ramusius.—
This copy was formerly Sir Hudson Lowe's, and has his autograph.

- 33 GOMARA: Historia delle Indie Occidentali tradotta per Aug. Cravaliz Roma.

Folio, black letter, 6l. 6s.

This book is the first of the second volume of Oviedo's General History, but on account of the death of the author, while the work was in the press, the remaining books were not printed. It is to be feared that books 21 to 28, which were in the hands of the printer, are lost; but books 29 to 48, exist in MS. in several collections.

- 35 RELACAM VERDADEIRA Dos trabalhos que ho Governador don Fernando de Souto y certos fidalgos Portugueses passaram no descobrimento da Provincia la Frodida. Agora novamente feita per hum fidalgo delvas Evora.
Small 8vo. black letter, 31l. 10s.

The beauty of condition and excessive rarity of this little book, render it one of the most desirable objects that could be offered to a book collector. It is believed to be unique, and the identical copy referred to by Leon (Pinelo) as existing in his time in the Library of the Duque de Sessa.

- 36 VICTORIA: Relectiones Theologicæ XII. in duos tomos divisæ, etc. Lugduni.

Small 8vo, 1*l.* 10*s.*

This work was translated from the original MS. of Ferdinand Columbus, which has never been printed, and appears to be lost. Barcia retranslated it from the Italian, from which language it was also translated into English (in Churchill's Collection) and into French. The following extract from the Epistle dedicatory, throws some light on the disappearance of the original MS. :—

Al Molt. M.S. H. S. Baliano di fornari, Giosepe Moleo.

“ Ne e da dubitare, che l'istoria non sia vera; poiche dal figliuolo, per relatione & lettere, è stata con molta prudenza scritta. Ne é ancora da dubitare che non sia scritta di man del sudetto Illustr. D. Ernando, & che questo che V. S. ha havuto non sia il proprio originale; essendo che a V. S. fu dato per tale dall' Illustr. D. Luigi Colombo, amico molto a V. S. E. questo Illustr. D. Luigi, al di d'hoggi, ammirante di S. M. Catolica: & fu nepote del sudetto D. Ernando, & figliuolo dell' Illustr. D. S. adonque, come gentil' huomo & di honore & di somma bontà, & desideroso che la gloria di cosi excel. huomo resti sempre immortale, non havendo riguardo all'età sua di LXX. anni, ne alla stagione ne alla lunghezza del viaggio, venna da Genova a Venetia, con proponimento di far stampare, il sudetto libro, cosi nella lingua Castigliana, nella quale fu scritto come nell' Italiana & appresso con fine de farlo tradurre nella latina," etc.

- 48 FERNANDEZ : Historia del Peru Sevilla.
Folio, 5l. 5s.

By an order of the Council of Indies, this work was not permitted to be sent to America. It relates principally to the civil wars of the Spaniards, and Robertson says, its author may be ranked among the historians now distinguished for their industry in research, or their capacity in judging with respect to the events which they relate.

1572.

This edition of Peter Martyr's Decades was made use of by Robertson, in compiling his history. He appears to have been ignorant of the existence of the Eight Decades which were first published in 1530 at Alcalá ; and in English by Hakluyt, in 1628.

- 53 MONARDES ; Historia Medicinal de las Cosas, que se traen de nuestras Indias Occidentales que sirven en Medecina Sevilla.

- Quarto, black letter, fine copy, 4l. 4s.

This volume is a reprint of the Decades of the Newe Worlde, 1555, somewhat differently arranged, with some additions. The following extract from Richard Willes's preface, gives an idea of the contents of the work:—

—“the Discovery of the West and Southe Western landes, done and written by Columbus, Pinzonus, Alfonsus (Pedro Alonso Nind,) Cortesius and Americus, of whom that region America hath name. Whose long letters and tedious reportes of thinges there brought to passe in the conquest of that half worlde, the straunge beastes, the sundry sortes of frutes, the joyes and riches the whiche that countrey yeeldeth, the manners and fashions of the people, their cities and princely palaces, theyr nobilitie, their manner of governement, their warres, theyr servile estate under the kynges of Spayne, their conversion unto the Christian fayth, P. Martyr, a learned and grave man, borne at Angleria, in the Duchy of Milane, then President of the Spanish Kinges Counsell for the West Indies, gathered into one volume, and leaving aside all superfluous narrations, made thereof, as it were, one briefe and continuall historie. This volume divided he into eyght Decades, after the Greeke worde, so calling the sundry parcels thereof, for that each one conteyneth in it ten particular bookes or chapters. R. Eden, our countreyman, did into English, when K. Philippe was in Englande, the three first Decades, and the fourth also, though under a wrong title, according to the Dutch printer's edition, wherein the fift, sixte, seventh, and eighth Decades were left out. He translated, moreover, Gonzales Ferdinandus Oviedus breviary of the West Indies, and gathered together out of many myghty and huge workes, some other prety pamphlettes concerning the Spanyarde's and Portugalles voiajes into the late discovered lands, adding thereto certaine discourses of the north partes. These his aforesayde doinges, as fewe mennes works, at the first come exactly abrode, this paynefull translatour mynded, if not to amende, at the least to augment, by puttyng thereunto in English, Lewis Vartomannus Navigation into Egypt, Arabia, Siria, Persia, and India, with our Merchantes, Muscovian and Persian travelles: but death prevented his purpose, not suffryng him to accomplish his desire.—Christian charitie, therefore, unto the party departed, caused me to helpe his workes forwarde. Nature moved me to take some paynes in placing orderly that whiche he had confusedly given out, the better to direct and the more to profit the reader: My profession enforced me to cut of some superfluous translations, and to fill up the rest of his doinges with P. Martyr's other writings, and finally to furnish his wants with my own store."—London, the 4th day of July, 1577.

- " This greate and large volume consisteth principally of foure partes, agreeable unto those foure corners of the worlde, whereunto the skilfull seamen and merchauntes adventurers of late yeeres have chiefly traueiled, and yet specially are wont to resorte. The first part conteyneth four Decades written by P. Martyr. The fourth Decade, for so was it named in the Spanyards edition of P. Martyr, his workes set forth at Alcala, A. D. 1530, though the Basile and Cullen printers have entitled it, De insulis nuper inventis, that is, of Isles lately found out, to wit, after Colombus voyages, &c. Hereunto have we added, Gonzalus Ferdinandus Oviedus historie containing in 18 severall chapters, a briefe declaration of the West Indys navigation, &c. To this we have added certaine speciaall reports of New Spaine or Mexico, of Peru, of Rio de la Plata, and the countrey lying thereunto, of the lands Labrador and Bacalaos, with the discovering of Florida.
- " The Seconde part of this work appeareth what it is, by the title thereof, to wyt, a discourse to prove that there is a passage to the Moluccaes, by the north-west, the whiche presently, M. Captain Furbisher, attempteth, with certaine reportes of the province China, in Cathago, where he hath to strike in his voyage, and thyrdly of Giapan, and other Islandes by the way, &c.

"In the thyrd part shal you find a discriptione of the north easterne frosty seas and kingdomes lying that way; as Moscovia, Schondia, or Denmark, Groenlande, Islande, Laponia, Norway, Suecia, Bothnia and Gothlande: out of Zeiglerus, Paulus Jovius, Haiton and Sebastian, free lord or baron of Herbestein, with the countreys, as well north and north east, beyond Moscovia, namely, Petzora, Juhra, and other provinces of the Tartars: as also the voyages made through Moscovia, by the Merchantes of London into Persia, conteinyng many speciall thynges woorth the knowledge, both of the countrey itself, the commodities thereof, the manners of the people, and the priviledges granted unto our Merchauntes by the Sophie, or Shaugh, the Persian Kyng.

"Finally, in the fourth part, are set downe our merchauntes voyages into Guinea, and the other Parcelles of Affrike lying towards the south east, Lewis Vertomannus Navigations into Egypte, Ethiopia, Arabia, Syria, Persia and East India, even to the fruitfull Moluccaes, with the prices of drugges and other wares brought from thence. Whereto for a conclusion, have we added partly out of Maximilian Transilvanus letter, wrytten unto the Cardinall of Salsburghe, and partly out of P. Martyr's other workes, that famous navigation made round about the whole world: the contention betwixte the Portugales and Spanyardes for the Moluccaes, and the decydyng thereof, by Pope Alexander the Syxt: and last of all, the abridgement of P. Martyr's foure last Decades, wherein especially that noble and glbrious conquest of Mexico is written. Generally this much of the foure parts of this large volume."

This curious work is divided into three books, two of which relate entirely to America. The author gives his motives for publishing the work in this manner. "Quant au but de mon dessein, je ne me suis proposé autre fin, que de faire entendre à nos Riere—neveux les merveilles des jugemens de Dieu en la descouverte des Indes Orientales et Occidentales par le plus estrange effects que la nature produit jamais et avec la tout louable gaillardise des Italiens, Portugais et Espagnols si curieusement hardis de s'exposer à tant de mors : la pauvre pauvre—te du François, qui n'a jusques icy osé tenté si louable ny pareille entreprise."

The following is a summary of the contents of these nine parts, which are all that are generally met with of what are called the "great voyages," the four supplementary parts, printed between 1619 and 1634, being of the greatest rarity, and worth at least fifty pounds. A complete and perfect set of the "great and little voyages" in twenty-five parts, has been sold for upwards of five hundred pounds. - 91 HERRERA: Historia general de los hechos de los Castellanos en las Islas y Tierra firme del mar oceano Madrid. Folio, 4 vols. 4l. 4s.

Herrera has been called the Prince of American historians. Having been charged by Philip II. to write the "General History of the Acts of the Castellans, in the islands and firm land of the Ocean Sea," he had at his disposition, all the papers and documents which could be found in the Archives and Libraries of Spain. A large portion of Herrera's history, however, is copied literally from the manuscript History or Chronicle of LAS CASAS. Robertson says, that of all the Spanish writers, Herrera furnishes the fullest and most accurate information concerning the conquest of Mexico, as well as every other transaction in America: and that his decades may be ranked among the most judicious and useful historical collections. Herrera's history comes down to the year 1555. It was reprinted in 1728, with a copious index, under the direction of Barcia; and translated into English in 1725-6, by Captain John Stevens.

Small 8vo. Russia, 18s.

The Sieur de Fumée tells the "reader" that the first edition of his work (in 1578) was so hastily and badly executed, that he thought it would have fallen still born from the press; but having learnt, to his surprise, that it had reached a fourth edition, he took pity upon it, and corrected it as far as in his power. The following specimen, which is the same in all the editions, is not favourable either to the translator, or to his corrections. Gomara, in chap. 35, speaking of the quantity of sugar produced, says there are in Hispaniola "al pie de treinta ingenios y trapiches ricos," which M. Fumée translates, "il y a plus de trente engins & la trafique en est fort riche." A few lines afterwards he translates "Trapiches" (sugar mills) by "une charge de cheval"—a horse load!

Wherein are truly observed the riches and fertilitie of those parts, abounding with things necessarie, pleasant, and profitable for the life of man, with the natures and dispositions of the inhabitants. Written by a Portugall gentleman of Elvas, employed in all the action, and translated out of Portuguese, by RICHARD HAKLUYT London.
Small 4to, 2l. 2s.

Translated from the rare little volume printed at Evora, in 1557, apparently with the view of inducing settlers to go out to the new colony of Virginia. It is reprinted in the supplementary volume to the new edition of Hakluyt's collection, printed in 1809.

- 111 A GOOD SPEED TO VIRGINIA. Essay 42—4. "He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgement in the earth, and the isles shall wait for his law." London.

Small 8vo, pp. 888, and 2 maps, 1*l.* 1*s.*

The first edition of a very important work, in regard to the history of Canada, and the Northern parts of America, which was several times reprinted. At the end is a collection of Poems by the same author, separately paged and entitled "Les Muses de la Nouvelle France." Paris, 1609.

- 113 NOVA FRANCIA: or the description of that part of New France, which is one continent with Virginia. Described in the three late voyages and plantation made by Monsieur de Monts, M. du Pont-Gravè, and M. de Poutrincourt, into the countries, called by the Frenchmen La Cadie, lying to the S. W. of Cape Breton ; together with an excellent severall Treatie of all the commodities of the said countries, and manners of the naturall inhabitants of the same. Translated out of French into English, by P. E. London.
Small 4to, 2*l.* 2*s.*

The dedication is signed P. Erondelle, who, in an address to the reader, says, " that the whole volume of the navigation of the French nation into the West Indies, (comprised in three books,) was brought to him to be translated, by Mr. Richard Hakluyt, by whom this part was selected and chosen from the whole work, for the particular use of this nation, to the end, that comparing the goodness of the lands of the northerly parts herein mentioned, with that of Virginia, which must be far better, by reason it stands more southerly, neerer to the sun, greater encouragement may be given to prosecute that generous and godly action, in planting and peopling that country, to the better propagation of the gospel of Christ, the salvation of innumerable souls, and general benefit of this land, too much pestered with over many people." No mention is made of Lescarbot in this book, which is, in fact, a translation of the latter half of the preceding work of that author, from the thirty-first chapter of the second book to the end of the third and last.

Small 8vo, 1*l.* 10*s.*

As the author was born in Peru, a descendant from the Incas, and acquainted with the language and traditions of his countrymen, this work has been considered of high authority. Robertson denies this, but allows that it contains "some curious facts taken from authors whose works were never published, and are now lost." It was reprinted in 1723. An English translation, by Sir Paul Rycault, was published in 1688. The second part was first printed in 1617.

Small 4to, pp. 56, 2*l.* 2*s.*

In the "Epistle dedicatorie," signed R. I., it is stated, that "the malicious and looser sort (being accompanied with the licentious vaine of stage poets) have whet their tongues with scornfull taunts against the action itselfe, insomuch as there is no common speech nor publike name of any thing this day (except it be the name of God), which is more vildly depraved, traduced and derided by such unhallowed lips than the name of Virginea."

Small 4to, 2l. 2s.

In the "Epistle dedicatorie" of 34 pages of W. Crashawe, after praising the author very highly, he goes on to say, "I hereby let all men know that a scholler, a graduate, a preacher, well borne, and friended in England, not in debt nor disgrace, but competently provided for, and liked, and beloved where he lived, not in want, but (for a scholler, and as these dayes be) rich in possession, and more in possibilitie, of himselfe without any perswasion (but God's and his own heart) did voluntarily leave his warme nest, and to the wonder of his kindred, and amazement of them that knew him, undertooke this hard, but, in my judgement, heroicall resolution to go to Virginia, and helpe to bear the name of God unto the Gentiles."

Quarto, 1*l.* 12*s.*

"Champlain merited the title of father of New France." This volume contains an account of his first voyage in 1604, his second in 1610, and his third in 1611. At the end of the book is an account of his fourth voyage in 1613, apparently printed separately, after the first three were published. The edition of 1632 is the most complete of Champlain's voyages. It was reprinted in August 1830, at the expense of the Government of France, to give employment to the journeymen printers, in 2 vols. 8vo.

With the exception of the dedication and sixteen pages of extracts, in Spanish and Italian, from Columbus's letters and will, this is an exact reprint, page for page, of the first edition of 1571. There is no year on the title or at the end, but the dedication to the Republic of Genoa, by the publisher, is dated 1614.

- 139 CONCILIOS PROVINCIALES, segundo y tercero celebrado en la ciudad de LIMA*Madrid.*

Small 4to, 16*s.*

There is no title page to this book, nor any evidence that it ever had one. The above and the year are ascertained by the licences prefixed to it. The work is partly in Latin and partly in Spanish.

Small 4to. 4*l.* 4*s.*

Dr. Ximenes says, in his introduction, that the work of Hernandez, abridged by the Napolitan physician Nardo Antonio Reccho, by strange ways reached the Indies, and fell into his hands; and that he was induced to publish this translation, adding such examples as had come under his own experience. See Hernandez in 1651.

This is the first book published which speaks of NEW ENGLAND, previously called North Virginia.

- 143 SUAREZ DE FIGUEROA (D. Christoval) Hechos de Don Garcia Hurtado de Mendoza, Marques de Canete*Madrid.*

Don Garcia accompanied his father, who went to Peru as Viceroy in 1555, and after the death of his father was himself appointed Viceroy of that country, where he remained until 1596. This work relates, therefore, almost entirely to the history of Peru. It is extremely well written, and highly esteemed in Spain. There are copies with the date of 1613, but are probably the same edition, with the alteration of the title page.

- 144 HISTORIA GENERAL del Peru trata del descubrimiento dél, y como lo ganaron los Españoles. Las guerras civiles que hubo entre Pizarros y Almagros, sobre la Partija de la tierra. Castigo y levantamiento de tiranos: y otros successos particulares que en la historia se Contienen. Escrita por el Ynca Garcilasso de la Vega, etc Cordova. Folio, 1*l.* 10*s.*

This is the second part of Garcilasso's History of Peru, the first having been published in 1609: both reprinted in 1723. Frequently printed in French, and latterly (in 1830) at the expense of the Government of France, in 7 vols. 8vo., with several other old works, for the purpose of giving employment to the journeymen printers.

This little book was evidently written by, or under the special direction of King James, as an apology for putting Raleigh to death.

This edition is very different from the first, both in arrangement and matter, and containing near a hundred pages more than that, bringing the history down to the time it was published.

- 149 RELACION DIARIA, del viage de Jacobo de Mayre y Guillelmo Cornelio Schouten, en que descubrieron nuevo Estrecho y passage del mar del norte al mar del sur, à la parte austral del estrecho de Magallanes Madrid.

Small 4to. Morocco, 6l. 6s.

The circumnavigation of Schouten and Le Maire was published in this year in English, French, Latin, &c. ; but of all the versions, this in Spanish is, beyond a doubt, the rarest. I have never seen or heard of another copy. There is a reference to maps, which were not in the book, but have been supplied from the French edition.

A very scarce work, and interesting from containing many particulars relating to the life of the celebrated Las Casas.

London.

About forty pages are occupied by "Orders and Constitutions, partly collected out of his Majesties letters Patents, and partly ordained upon

- 156 RELACION de los Servicios que hizo à S. M. del Rey Felipe II. & III. Don Alonso de Sotomayor. Por Francisco Caro de Torres*Madrid.*
Small 4to, 2*l.* 2*s.*

I have two distinct editions of this work, although one is an exact copy of the other in every respect. One of them is probably a counterfeited edition, and I take it to be that which has the word contra in the seventh line of the privilege printed with all its letters, and not cotra as in the other. It is a very curious work, containing a great deal about Hawkins and Drake (here called Aquines and Draque), Sotomayer having been many years a Governor in Chile and Terra Firme.

1621.

- 157 WEST INDIES. Orders and Articles granted by the high and mightie Lords, the States General of the United Provinces, concerning the erecting of a West India Companie: together with the privileges and rights given unto the same. .London.

Small 4to. morocco, 10*l.* 10*s.*

With an engraved title, containing portraits of the two brothers, Nodal, and the chart engraved on copper, not on wood, as Debure has it. This expedition was probably made in consequence of the discoveries of Schouten and Le Maire, whose voyage terminated on the first of July, and this commenced on the 27th of September of the same year (1617). It is generally considered as a book of great rarity, particularly with the original chart, and more than one copy has been sold at thirty guineas. It appears never to have been translated into any other language. It was reprinted at Cadiz in 1769; and this edition, probably equally as useful as the first, may be had for a guinea.

- 169 NOVA TYPIS TRANSACTA NAVIGATIO Novi Orbis Indiæ Occidentalis BUELLII CATALONI Abbatis Montis serrati, socio-rumque monachorum ex ordine S. Folio, 2l. 2s.

With eighteen folding plates, and an engraved title, containing portraits of St. Brandan and Father Boyl. The latter accompanied Columbus on his second voyage, as apostolical vicar for the new world, attended by eleven ecclesiastics, for the purpose of converting the heathen. In the Historiadores Primitivos of Barcia (1749) there is a long treatise by Don Antonio Ardoino, in defence of Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca, who, it seems, is roughly treated by Father Philoponus, for having dared to perform some miracles, which the reverend father says are only to be performed by holy monks and reverend priests, and not by "scelestos milites."

The first edition of this French translation of Acosta appears to have been published in 1598.

Small 4to, 1l. 12s.

This volume comprises Capt. Whitbourne's tract, printed in 1620, together with the discourse above mentioned, but with considerable alterations, and 15 pages of letters from Newfoundland, dated in 1622.—Capt. Whitbourne was the father of Newfoundland, as Smith was of Virginia and New England, and Champlain of Canada, &c.—He says that that island was as familiar to him as his own country, having been employed more than forty years in making voyages to and from it.

IIII. Their voyage to the Massachusets, and their entertainment there. With an answer to all such objections as are any way made against the lawfulness of English plantations in those parts. London.

And a treatise annexed, written by that learned mathematician, Mr. Henry Briggs, of the N. W. passage to the South sea, through the continent of Virginia, and by Fretum Hudson. Also, a communication of such worthy benefactors as have contributed their christian charity towards the advancement of the colony. This work is a translation of the foregoing, both of them being taken from the "Descripcion de las Indias," published by Herrera, with his General History. They contain, besides, an account of the circumnavigation of Le Maire, an abridged relation of all those who have passed the Streights of Magellan, Pedro Ordonnez de Cevallos's account of the Indias Occidentales, and a description of America from Bertius. The dedication to the Latin edition is signed Caspar Barlaeus. Nearly the whole of this Latin edition is copied by De Bry, in Part XII. of his America.

Folio, 2l. 2s.

This first edition of the third Mexican Council is very rare. It was reprinted with the first and second Councils at Mexico in 1770. The fourth, held in 1771, has never been printed, but a MS. copy is in my possession, in 2 vols. folio, apparently prepared for the press by Lorenzana, who deserves much credit for having caused to be reprinted the preceding Councils, and the celebrated letters of Hernan Cortez.

forenamed troubles, and there lived since their first Arrivall. Whereunto is added by him a briefe Relation of a credible intelligence of the present state of Virginia.....London.
Small 4to. 2l. 2s.

"A Postscript. If any man desire a more ample relation of the state of this Countrie, before such time as this present relation taketh place, I referre them to the two former printed books: the one published by the President and Councell for New-England, and the other gathered by the Inhabitants of this present Plantation at Plimouth, in New England: Both which bookes are to be sold by John Bellamy, at his shop at the Three Golden Lions, in Cornehill, neere the Royall Exchange."

These former printed books are evidently the two mentioned under 1622. The present tract is by Edward Winslow, and contains the proceedings in New-England from December 1621 to August 1623. The briefe relation of Virginia referred to on the title, is printed on a separate single leaf, at the end of the book, and is not often found with it.

- 172* AN ENCOURAGEMENT TO COLONIES, by Sir William Alexander Knight.....London.

A very curious work, containing an account of the first settling of the northern parts of America, particularly of the French in Canada. The map contains the coast from Cape Cod to Labrador. Sir William Alexander first settled and gave name to Nova Scotia. A copy of this tract was sold a few years ago for four guineas.

- 173 HAKLUYTUS POSTHUMOUS, or Purchas his Pilgrimes. Containing a History of the World in Sea Voyages and Land Travels by Englishmen and others. Wherein God's wonders in nature and providence, the Actes, Artes, and Varieties of Men, with a world of the world's rarities, are by a world of eye witness authors related to the World. Some left written by Mr. Hakluyt at his death, more since added, his also perused and perfected. All examined, abbreviated, illustrated with notes. Enlarged with discourses. Adorned with pictures, and expressed in Mapps. In four parts. Each containing five books. By Samuel Purchas, B. D.....London.
Folio, 5 vols. russia, 31l. 10s.

The arrangement of Purchas's Pilgrimes is not easy to be understood at first sight. The work consists of two parts, each in two volumes, (the fifth, or his Pilgrimages, being a separate work), and each part consisting of ten books, whereof five are comprised in each volume. They are aptly characterised by the author in the dedication of his Pilgrimages to Charles I. as his "voluminous twinnnes of Pilgrimes."—Part of the third and all of the fourth volume relate to America, containing the following pieces.

The fifth volume called "Purchas his Pilgrimage," was first printed by itself in 1613, and reprinted in 1614, in 1617, and in 1626, for the fourth time, to accompany the "Pilgrimes," of which in fact, it is rather an abridgment, but more especially devoted to an account of the religion and religious ceremonies of all nations.

"This author," says Locke, in the introductory discourse to Churchill's collection of voyages (1732) "like Hakluyt, has thrown in all that came to hand to fill up so many volumes, and is excessive full of his own notions, and of mean quibbling and playing upon words; yet for such as can make choice of the best, the collection is very valuable."

London.

Purchas, in his Pilgrimes, states, that the worshipful William Vaughan of Tarracod, in the county of Carmarthen, Doctor of the Civil Law, had undertaken to plant a circuit in the Newfoundland, and had in two several years sent thither divers men and women, and was willing to entertain such as would be adventurers with him upon fit conditions. This is no doubt the author of the present work, as reference is made in it to the Carolea Cambrensis, as being by the same author, and that work was published in 1625, as the production of William Vaughan, A.M.

Vaughan, it seems, was desirous of putting forth a book, to recommend his Cambrioll Colchos, and to induce settlers to proceed there; but learning at his bookseller's that most serious works were sold as waste paper, "even for two-pence a quire," he began to rouse up his thoughts, and thoroughly to ruminate on some plot, "which might invite our worldlings for their present and future good to embrace those fortunes, which, with open armes, this sister-land offers unto us." For the accomplishment of which, under a poetical style, he resolved to use the name of the great Apollo, after the manner of Boccacini, whose work, he says, he had lately communicated to English readers. Altogether the work is one of the most curious and singular of the time, a compound of truth and fiction, of quaint prose and still quainter verse; and although it does not add much to our information respecting the early settlement of Newfoundland, is well deserving of a place in an American Library. The map by Captain John Mason, who spent seven years in the country, is very rarely found with the book.

- 178 THE GENERALL HISTORIE of Virginia, New England, and the Summer Isles, with the names of the adventurers, planters and governours, from their first beginning, An. 1584, to this present 1626. With the proceedings of those severall colonies, and the accidents that befell them in all their journeyes and discoveries. Also the Map, and descriptions of all those countryes, their commodities, people, government, customes, and religion yet knowne. Divided into sixe bookes. By

Small folio, 5l. 5s.

The first edition. There are copies with the dates 1627 and 1632: but they are apparently the same edition, with merely an alteration in the date. They all appear to want sheet O, or from page 97 to 104. A perfect copy should have, besides the beautifully engraved title page with portraits of Elizabeth, James, and Charles I., a portrait of Matoaka, and another of the Duchess of Richmond; together with four maps, or folding plates. The original portraits of Matoaka and the Dutchess of Richmond are rarely found in the book, but are sometimes supplied by very well executed modern fac-similes. Smith's General History is reprinted in Pinkerton's Collection, vol. 13: and an edition, including his Travels (1630) was published at Richmond, Va. in 1819, in two vols. in octavo.

A book of the greatest rarity ; having been printed only for the use of the members of the Council of Indias ; as is stated by Pinelo in his Bibliotheca (1629.)

- 186* NEW ENGLAND'S PLANTATION London. 4to. pp. 20.

This tract has the above title on the second leaf. It commences with an address "to the reader," signed M. S. which states that it was written by a Revd. Divine* now there living, "who onely sent it to some friends here which were desirous of his relations ; which is an epitomy of their proceedings in the plantation." The date may be nearly ascertained by the following paragraph on the last page.

"There are in all of us both old and new planters, about three hundred ; whereof two hundred of them are settled at Nehum-kek, now called Salem : and the rest have planted themselves at Masathulets Bay, beginning to build a towne there, which we doe call Cherton or Charles Towne." This occurred in 1628.

- 188 LEON (Antonio de): Epitome de la Biblioteca Oriental y Occidental Nautica y Geografica Madrid.
Small 4to. 1l. 10s.

The author of this little work, probably the first which contains a catalogue of Books relating to America, afterwards took the surname of PINELO, by which, and by Barcia's edition of this work, printed in 1737, he is much better known than by this and the name of Leon. Barcia's numerous additions are so clumsily thrown together, that it is quite a relief to refer from it to this neat and well arranged little manual.

Geraldinus was preceptor to Catherine of Arragon, and a friend of Columbus. He was the second bishop of St. Domingo, appointed in 1520, by Charles V. The work is preceded by a great number of complimentary verses in various languages, and among them the following in English, by "Joannis Walkero."

Kings, Queens, thy nursing parents shall I tear me? or thee
The stem from whence their better being grew?
Many thy princely children, but the chief was she Whom Albion erst a Widow virgin knew.

- 199 SMITH (Captain John) : The general historie of Virginia, &c.
Small folio, 5l. 5s. London.

This appears to be no other than the edition of 1626, with merely an alteration of the date. The portraits of Matoaka and the Duchess of Richmond are supplied in this copy by the fac-similes.

- 200 DIAZ DEL CASTILLO (Bernal) : Historia verdadera de la conquista de la la Nueva Espana, &c. Madrid.
Folio, 2l. 2s.

There are at least two editions of this work in folio, with the same date, but one of them apparently printed about 1700. One of them has an additional chapter, with the following note :—

" This Chapter, which is the last in the original, was not printed on account of its appearing useless, and is now added by desire of a lover of the integrity of the work." An edition in four volumes octavo was printed in 1795 ; and an English translation in 1800.

Bernal Diaz del Castillo had been an adventurer in each of the expeditions to New Spain, and was the companion of Cortes in all his battles and perils. When he found that neither himself, nor many of his fellow soldiers were once mentioned by Gomara, but that the fame of all their exploits was ascribed to Cortes, the gallant old veteran laid hold of his pen with indignation, and composed his " True History." It contains a prolix, minute, confused narrative of all Cortes' operations, in such a rude vulgar style as might be expected from an illiterate soldier. But as he relates transactions, of which he performed a considerable part, his account bears all the marks of authenticity, and is accompanied with such a pleasant naïveté, with such interesting details, with such amusing vanity, and yet so pardonable in an old soldier who had been (as he boasts) in a 119 battles, as renders his book one of the most singular that is to be found in any language.—Robertson, Vol. II., Note 1.

- 201* SAGARD THEODAT (Gabriel) Le grande voyage du pays des Hurons, es confins du Canada, avec un Dictionnaire de la langue HuronneParis.

Lord Monboddo says that it was the perusal of the Dictionary attached to this book, that first made him think of his work on the Origin and Progress of Language: but Charlevoix (see 1636) speaks disparagingly of the author's knowledge of the language. The work is rare in England, and has sold as high as 15*l*.

1633.

- 202 THE STRANGE AND DANGEROUS VOYAGE of Captain Thomas James, in his intended discovery of the N. W. passage into the South Sea. Wherein the miseries indured both going, wintering, returning, and the rarities observed, both philosophicall and mathematicall, are related in this journall of it. Published by his Majesties command. To which are added a plat or card, &c. London.
Small 4to. 1*l*. 4*s*.

Captain James's voyage is reprinted in Churchill's collection, and in an octavo form in 1740.

- 203 LAET (Joanne de) Novus Orbis seu descriptiones Indiæ Occidentalis libri XVIII. Novis tabulis geographicis et variis animantium, plantarum fructuumque iconibus illustrati.

F. Bernardino de Cardenas, Predicador general de la orden de S. Francisco, y Legado del santo Concilio Provincial Argentino Quarto, LARGE PAPER, 5*l*. 5*s*. Madrid.

A very rare book, apparently not printed for sale, as it has none of the usual licenses, approbations, &c. customary at the period of its publication. This copy has, however, an original MS. censure of Fray Pedro de Ayala, occupying nine very closely written pages. The author was afterwards Bishop of Paraguay, and became celebrated for the persecutions he suffered from the Jesuits.

Cornutus was never in Canada. The plants described by him were observed in the gardens of Paris. The figures are very good, etched by Vallot, and are printed with the text. Tournefort says that the descriptions of Cornutus are inferior to the Botanists of his time. He however, deserves the credit of having described about forty American plants for the first time.

posé par le F. Gabriel Sagard, Theodat, Mineur Recollect de la Province de Paris Paris.

8vo. 17. 16s.

A volume of upwards of a thousand pages, containing a diffuse narrative of occurrences in Canada, from 1615 until the French were driven out by Kirk (called by the French Kertk) and his associates, in 1629.

"The author resided several years among the Hurons, and relates with great simplicity all that he saw and heard, but had not sufficient leisure to see much, and still less to ascertain the truth of what was related to him. His Huron Vocabulary (see 1632) proves that neither himself nor those he consulted, understood that difficult language, consequently the number of savages converted in his time could not have been great. In other respects, he appears to have been a person of judgment, and very zealous, not only in the conversion of souls, but also in the progress of the Colony which he had seen commenced, and nearly destroyed in its infancy, by the invasion of the English." This judgment of Father Charlevoix, a jesuit, bears strong marks of the "esprit du corps." The Recollects commenced their missions into Canada ten years before the Jesuits, but he would insinuate, that but little had been done until the arrival of his own order.

4to. pp. 8. 5s.

Persons not in the habit of collecting books upon any particular subject will judge superfluous notices of ephemeral tracts of three or four leaves only, and on subjects of little importance at present: the collector however will, on the contrary, consider these as of more importance than the notices of works of greater magnitude, as preserving a memorial of articles from their nature so liable to perish, and from their insignificance, in the eyes of people in general, so liable to be destroyed.

The French Jesuits commenced the publication of their Relations of Occurrences in different parts of America, but principally in Canada, in 1632, and continued them almost yearly until 1672. A complete collection of these Relations is not to be found even in the Royal Library at Paris. "The style of them is extremely simple, but this same simplicity has not contributed less to give them a great celebrity than the curious and edifying matter which they contain."—Charlevoix.

Translated from the Latin original, published in 1633. "This work is full of excellent researches respecting the establishments of the Europeans in America, and also relating to the natural history, and to the character and manners of the Americans. - 234 ACUÑA (El padre Christoval de) Nuevo descubrimiento del gran Rio de las Amazonas Madrid. Small 4to. morocco, 8l. 8s.

This little volume is highly prized by collectors of rare books, and has sold as high as 16l. ; but, according to Barcia, its rarity is not owing to a rigid suppression of the work by order of Philip IV., as is stated by most bibliographical writers, but from a very small number of copies having been printed. It was probably not intended for sale, as it is not furnished with the licences and privileges usually prefixed to books published at that time. Acuña was accompanied by Artieda, a brother Jesuit, and the object of their voyage was to ascertain whether the treasures of Peru might not be brought to Europe by the way of the river Amazon, without going through the South Sea, at that time much infested by pirates, and round Cape Horn.

- 235 LECHFORD (Thomas) Plain dealing ; or Newes from New-England. A short view of New-England's present Government, both ecclesiasticall and civil, compared with the anciently-received and established Government of England, in some materiall points ; fit for the gravest consideration in these times London. - 236 GROTIUS (Hugonis) De Origine Gentium Americanarum dissertatio s. l. Small 4to. 16s.

This is the first of a very interesting series of tracts on the progress of the Gospel among the Indians in New England.

- 238 CHURCH GOVERNMENT and Church Covenant discussed, in an answer of the Elders of the several Churches in New-England to two and thirty questions, sent over to them by divers Ministers in England, to declare their judgements therein. Together with an Apologie of the said Elders in New England for Church Covenant, sent over in answer to Master Bernard in the year 1639. As also in an answer to nine positions about Church Government. And now published for the satisfaction of all who desire resolution in those points*London.*
Quarto, 16*s.*

A hiatus occurs in the second part of 48 pages, which appears to have been the Apologie of the Elders, of which only the title is bound with the work.

- 239 IDEAS DE VIRTUD en algunos Claros varones de la Compañia de Jesus. Para los Religiosos della. Recopilados por el Padre Juan Eusebio Nieremberg, de la misma Compañia.
Folio, 2*l.* 2*s.* Madrid.

The first part of a very curious and scarce work, containing the lives of the most celebrated Jesuits. The first four volumes were written by Nieremberg (see 1644-5-7). The next two by Andrade, and were printed in 1666-7. The three last by Cassani, in 1734-5. The only complete copy that I am aware of is in the library of the Right Honorable Lord Viscount Kingsborough, at Mitchilstown Castle, in Ireland. I want the second, fifth, and sixth volumes. As the titles to several of these volumes are curious, they will be inserted at length under the year in which they were published,

Small 8vo. 8*s.*

"Grotius, dont l'ouvrage avait paru à Paris l'année précédente, prétendait que les peuples de l'Amerique n'étoient pas fort anciens; et qu'ils y avoient passé de l'Europe. Laet en refutant cette opinion, établit que l'Amerique avoit depuis long-temps reçu ses habitants des autres parties du monde. Grotius ayant répliqué, la même année, avec beaucoup de hauteur, Laet répondit avec plus de politesse et de douceur dans l'écrit suivant: "Responsio ad Dissertationem secundam Hugonis Grotii de origine gentium Americanarum. Amst. 1644." Cette discussion donna lieu à l'écrit de G. Horn et d'autres sur le même sujet." Biog. Univ. tom. xxiii. p. 108.

On all which are added spirituall observations, generall and particular, by the authour, of chiefe and speciall use (upon all occasions) to all the English inhabiting those parts; yet pleasant and profitable to the view of all men. By Roger Williams, of Providence, in New England. London.

Octavo.

This very curious little book contains many interesting particulars of the manners and customs of the Massachusetts and neighbouring Indians. Each of the 32 chapters, of which it is composed, is concluded with a few verses. The following, which concludes the XXII^d, which treats of the Government and Justice of the Indians, may serve as a specimen of the whole.

Adulteries, Murthers, Robberies, Thefts, Wild Indians punish these
And hold the scales of justice so
That no man farthing leese.

When Indians heare the horrid filths
Of Irish, English Men,
The horrid oaths and murthers late
Thus say these Indians then :

We weare no Cloaths, have many Gods,
And yet our sinnes are lesse;
You are Barbarians, Pagans wild,
Your Land's the Wildernesse.

- 251 MORISOTI (Claudii Bartholomæi) PERUVIANA. "Non cecinit meliore lyra."..... Divione.
Quarto, with the key, 1l. 4s —without the key, 12s.

This book has nothing to do with Peruvian history; it is called by the French writers, an allegorical and historical romance. It relates to the times of Louis XIII. from 1610 to 1643, but more particularly to Gaston de Orleans, and Margaret of Lorraine, his second wife, who are made the hero and heroine of the piece. All the names of persons and places are Peruvian, and one of my copies has the explanatory key, which is said to be of great rarity. Both have the enigmatical key, and the "Conclusio et Interpretatio totius operis eodum autore.—Divione 1646.

The author says, on the reverse of the 180th leaf, that only a few copies of this work had been printed for the use of the King, his Council, and Ministers; it is consequently extremely rare. There is a difference in the copies, this possessing twenty-two leaves, evidently added some time after the work was first printed. In Barcia's additions to Pinelo, it is stated that the author had prepared a much more extensive work on the same subject, the printing of which was commenced, but never concluded.

- 253 HISTORICA RELACION del Reyno de CHILE, y de las misiones y ministerios que exercita en él la Compañía de Jesus. Alonso de Ovalle, de la Compañía de Jesus, natural de Santiago de Chile, y su procurador á Roma Roma. Small folio, 3l. 3s.

This work was published at the same time in Italian, but the Spanish, which is the original, is much more complete than the translation. It contains, besides, twenty-one very curious engraved portraits of the principal Spaniards, who had conquered or governed in Chili, which are not in the Italian. Copies like the present, with 38 copper-plates including a map and 18 wood cuts, are very rare. Six books out of the eight, with some omissions, are translated in Churchill's collection. (1732.)

- 254 HISTORICA RELATIONE del Regno di Cile, etc..... Roma. Small folio, 18s

The foregoing work in Italian, with some omissions. It has 15 copper-plates, including the map, and the eighteen wood cuts, as in the Spanish edition.

- 256 THE SIMPLE COBLER OF AGGAWAM, in America, willing to help mend his native country, lamentably tattered, both in the upper leather and sole, with all the honest stitches he can take. And as willing never to be paid for his work, by old English wonted pay. It is his trade to patch all the year long gratis. Therefore I pray you Gentlemen, to keep your purses. By Theodore de la Guard. In rebus, &c.

Quarto, pp. 80.

London.

I have another copy printed in the same year, which has, at the head of p. 1, "Sutor ultra crepidam," instead of "The simple Cobler of Aggawam, in America;" and has the "clench" before the errata, instead of concluding the book, as in the foregoing.

Theodore de la Guard is an assumed name; the author was Nathaniel Ward, who resided about twelve years in New England, as a preacher. His work is "one of the most quaint and pedantic of a period when quaintness and pedantry were the fashion."—North American Review, I. p. 297.

Clement (Bib. Cur. t. ii. p. 430) calls this work "fort rare," most of the copies having been consumed by a fire, which destroyed the warehouses of Blaeu, the publisher. It is a magnificent work, profusely illustrated with maps, views, &c. An edition in 8vo. will be found under 1660.

The author of this work had never been in Virginia, but wrote his account from books, and the information of friends. It contains sixty-six closely printed pages, and "was written in six nights."

- 272 A PERFECT description of VIRGINIA: being a full and true relation of the present state of the plantation, their health, peace, and plenty; the number of people, with their abundance of Cattle, Fowl, Fish, &c. with severall sorts of rich and good commodities, which may there be had, either naturally or by art and labour. Which we are fain to procure from Spain, France, Denmark, Swedeland, Germany, Poland, yea, from the East Indies. There having been nothing related of the true estate of this plantation these 25 years. Being sent from Virginia at the request of a Gentleman of worthy note, who desired to know the true state of Virginia, as it now stands. Also a narration of the country, within a few dayes journey of Virginia, West and by South, where people come to trade; being related to the Governor, Sir William Berckley, who is to go himself to discover it with 30 horse and 50 foot, and other things needfull for his enterprize. Wherein the riches of God's grace in the effectual calling of many of them is cleared up: as also a manifestation of the hungering desires of many people in sundry parts of that country, after the more full revelation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, to the exceeding consolation of every christian reader. Together with an Appendix to the foregoing Letters, holding forth conjectures, observations, and applications. By J. D., Minister of the Gospel. Published by Edward Winslow London.

4to. 18*s.*

The fourth of the series of tracts on the progress of the Gospel among the Indians. It is dedicated to the Parliament of England, and was apparently the means in part of procuring the incorporation of the Society, for propagating the Gospel in New-England, which was established in the same year. It appears from the dedication, that so early as March 17, 1647, the Committee of Foreign Plantations was ordered to "prepare and bring in an ordinance for the encouragement and advancement of learning and piety in New England," but which from the "many and weighty occasions and businesses of the house" had not before taken effect. The initials J. D. on the title, are probably those of Mr. John Dury, author of a long letter in Thorowgood's "Jewes in America."

Madrid.

A very curious work, containing an account of the first church establishments in Spanish America; and as the cross kept pace with the sword in the conquest of that country, it contains important matter in regard to its early history. The second volume was published in 1655.

1650.

By Edward Williams, Gent. London.

Small 4to. 1l. 12s.

There is an account of this work in vol. 1 of the North American Review. A second edition was printed in the same year, with the addition of "The Discovery of Silk Worms, with their benefit, and im-planting of mulberry trees. Also the dressing of Vines for the rich trade of making wines in Virginia."

- 278 L'AMERICA. Poema eroico di Girolamo Bartolomei già Smeducci. Al Cristianissimo Luigi XIV. Re di Francia e di Navarra. Roma.

This poem appears to be a sort of Pilgrim's Progress in verse; the hero being Americus Vesputius. It consists of forty cantos, each of more than a hundred stanzas.

- 279 VIRTUDES DEL INDIO. Por el Obispo del Pueblo de los Angeles.

Small 4to. 5l. 5s.

A very rare tract, without title or preliminaries of any kind, and without date, place, or printer's name, but apparently printed at Madrid about this time. It is a high panegyric of the Indians of New Spain, and being somewhat in the style of the celebrated work of father Las Casas, was not probably allowed to be published. A very small edition was printed at Saragoza in 1661: and there is a French translation in Thevenot's collection. Its author, Bishop Palafox, was celebrated for his disputes with the Jesuits. He was so highly esteemed by the Jansenists that they attempted to have him canonized.

1651.

- 280 THE LIGHT APPEARING more and more towards the perfect day; Or, a farther discovery of the present state of the Indians in New England, concerning the progresse of the Gospel amongst them. With a short collection of the most remarkable passages from the original to the dissolution of the Virginia company: and a large description of Virginia, with the several commodities thereof, wherein the general company of the Sommer islands, as many of their members have considerable interest London.

Small 4to. 1l. 8s.

The "short collection of the most remarkable passages from the original to the dissolution of the Virginia Company" is printed separately with a distinct title-page, and is sometimes quoted as a separate work.

Folio, 2l. 2s.*

This is the printed title to this work ; the following is engraved in the centre of a handsome frontispiece :

Rerum Medicarum Novæ Hispaniæ Thesaurus seu Plantarum Animalium Mineralium Mexicanorum Historiæ ex Francisci Hernandez Novi Orbis Medici Primarii relationibus in ipsa Mexicana urbe conscriptis a Nardo Antonio Reccho Monte corvinate Cath. Majest. Medico et Neap. Regni Archiatro Generali jussu Phillippi II. Hisp. Ind. etc. Regis. Collecta ac in ordinem digesta a Joanne Terentio Lynceo Constantiense Germo. Pho. ac Medico Notis illustrata. Nunc primum in Naturalium rerum studiosorum gratiam lucubrationibus Lynceorum publici juris facta. Quibus jam excussi accessere demum alia quorum omnium synopsis sequenti pagina ponitur. Opus duobus voluminibus divisum. Phillippo IIII. Regi Catholico Magno Hispaniarum utriusque Siciliæ et Indiarum etc. Monarchæ dicatum.

There is a great deal of confusion in regard to the bibliographical as well as to the literary history of this work. Acosta, in his history printed in 1590, speaks of Dr. Hernandez' history, and of Nardo Antonio's abridgment of it; and to "these books (probably meaning MSS.) and works refers those who wish for more particular information concerning the plants of the Indies, and their medicinal uses." Leon (Pinelo) in his Biblioteca, printed in 1629, says that it was already printed in Germany, and that Pedro de la Seyne, in his Homeri Nepenthes, also quoted it as printed. At page 460, there is an address to the reader, dated in Rome, 1625, which appears to have been placed instead of an address to Cardinal Barberini, with the same date, and in nearly the same words (both of which are in my copy.) Which shows that part of the work was probably printed before 1644, when Innocent X. was made Pope, and expelled the Barberini, by whose means he had been elected, from Rome. A dedication to the same Cardinal, at page 903 (also in mine) without date, is supplied in most copies by another to the Duke del Infantado, dated Rome, 1651. In some copies, even the figure of the Dragon, at p. 816, dedicated also to Cardinal Barberini, is torn out. Some copies have a plant engraved on copper, at p. 213. and another at p. 301, but which are generally wanting: many copies have only the engraved title page; in some dated 1651, in others 1649. It appears probable, that the body of the work was printed in 1625; when a few copies got abroad, and that it was completed, and some changes made, in 1649-51.

Hernandez was Physician to Phillip II., by whom he was sent to Mexico, to examine and describe its natural productions, and ascertain their medicinal properties. He wrote a copious history in Latin, which was given to Nardo Antonio Recco, a Napolitan physician, for examination, who reduced it to a moderate compass. The original of this abridgment, with the censorship and approbation of Dr. Valle, by some singular chance, fell into the hands of the Dominican Friar, Fr. Francisco Ximenez, in Mexico, by whom it was translated into Spanish, and printed in that city in 4to. in 1615. This work corresponds almost exactly to the X books published in Rome, in 1648-51, but both differ materially from the Plant. Nov. Hisp. &c. published by Ortega, from Hernandez' manuscripts in 1790. Most of the original MSS. of Hernandez were destroyed by the fire at the Escorial in 1671. There is extant a MS. translation of Pliny by Hernandez. Very little is known respecting his life, although much more worthy of a niche in the temple of Fame, than many of his cotemporaries. Like his early friend and companion Ambrosio de Morales, he probably flourished during the greater part of the 16th century. His native place was Toledo.

Haga Comit.

"Ce livre fut écrit à la demande de Jean de Laet, qui avait déjà réfuté l'opinion de Grotius sur ce sujet. Horn combat aussi les autres écrivains qui l'avoient traité; mais il établit son propre système sur des conjectures peu solides. Il fait d'abord peupler l'Amerique par les Phéniciens, les anciens Cantabres et d'autres peuples de l'occident, et plus tard par les Chinois, les Huns, et d'autres nations de l'Orient. Il y a beaucoup d'érudition dans ce livre: mais elle y est mal digérée, et l'auteur fait souvent des excursions étrangères à son sujet."—Biog. Univ. 20, p. 569.

Quarto, 1l. 8s.

The running title is "Wonder working Providence" of Sion's Saviour in New England; and the author, according to Prince, was Mr. Edward Johnson, of Wobun, in N.E.; but F^o. Gorges included this same edition in his "America painted to the life," under his own name (see 1659) merely changing the title, and adding two pages of introduction, instead of the original, which is signed T. H. The author, whoever he was, had a most intolerable itch for versifying, celebrating most of the characters he speaks of, in some "short meeter, in the author's rude verse, penned of purpose to keepe in memory the names of such worthies as Christ made strong for himselfe, in this unwonted worke of his." The following are in honor of Gov. Endicott:

"Strong valiant John, wilt thou march on, and take up station first,
Christ call'd hath thee, his souldier be, and fail not of thy trust;
Wilderness wants, Christ's grace supplants, then plant his churches pure,
With tongues gifted, and graces led, help thou to his procure;
Undaunted thou wilt not allow, malignant men to waste,
Christ's vineyard heere, whose grace should cheer, his well beloved's taste.
Then honoured be, thy Christ hath thee, their generall promoted,
To shew their love, in place above, his people have thee voted.
Yet must thou fall to grave with all the nobles of the earth, Thou rotting worme, to dust must turn, and worse but for new birth."

- 305 THE TEARS OF THE INDIANS; being an historical and true account of the cruel Massacres and Slaughters of above twenty millions of innocent people; committed by the Spaniards in the islands of Hispaniola, Cuba, Jamaica, &c. As also in the Continent of Mexico, Peru, and other places of the West Indies, to the total destruction of those countries. Written in Spanish by Casaus, an eye witness of these things, and made English by J. P. London.

Small 8vo. with 4 plates, 16s.

Dedicated to his highness Oliver, Lord Protector, &c.: praises his zeal in avenging the cruelties of the Spaniards upon the Indians: signed J. Phillips. The dedication is followed by an address to "all true English men," exciting them against their old and constant enemies the Spaniards. I am not certain that the plates belong to the book, having seen no other copy with them.

- 306* LEAH AND RACHEL, or the two fruitful sisters, Virginia and Maryland, their present condition impartially stated and related; with a removal of such imputations as are scandalously cast on those countries, whereby many deceived souls rather to beg, steal, or rot in prison, and come to shameful deaths, than to better their being by going thither, wherein is plenty of all things necessary for humane subsistence. By John Hammond.....London.
Small 4to. pp. 32.

1657.

- 307 A TRUE and exact History of the Island of Barbados. Illustrated with a mapp of the Island, as also the principall trees and plants there, set forth in their due proportions and shapes, drawne out by their severall and respective scales. By Richard Ligou, Gent. London.
Small folio, 18s.

The author was thrown into prison soon after his return to England, and there wrote his account, and made from memory his drawings of plants, &c. Published in French, in 1684.

- 308 COSMOGRAPHIE, in four books. Containing the Chorographie and Historie of the whole World, and all the principal Kingdoms, Provinces, Seas and Isles thereof. By Peter Heylyn.

The second edition.London.
Folio, maps, 18s.

The second part of the fourth book relates to the "Chorographie and historie of America," with a map.

- 309 L'AMERIQUE en plusieurs cartes & en divers traittés de Geographie, et d'histoire. Là où sont descripts succinctement & avec une belle methode & facile ses Empires, ses Peuples, ses Colonies, &c. Par N. Sanson d'Abbeville, Geographe ordinaire du Roy.....Paris.
Quarto, 12s.

The Sansons published maps and descriptions of the four parts of the world, of which Lenglet du Fresnoy said, near a hundred years ago, that the maps were very well engraved, but "that Geography had changed its face since Messrs. Sanson published their work."

- 310 RELACION del Viage y sucessos que tuvo desde que salió de la Ciudad de Lima, hasta que llegó à estos Reynos de España el Dr. D. Diego Portichuelo de Ribadeneyra, &c. natural de Anduxar.Madrid.
4to. 18s.

The author of this work was a priest, who, on his voyage from Lima to Spain, by the way of Panama and Portobello, met with more disasters than perhaps ever fell to the lot of one man. In a shipwreck in the gulf of Mexico, only forty-five souls out of 650 were saved: but the author seems to think his greatest misfortune was that of being captured by English heretics, by whom he says his sacerdotal character was less respected than it was by the elements themselves. There are few personal narratives so full of incident and adventure, having more the air of a romance than a relation of facts.

- 311 GULIELMO PISONIS Medici Amsteladæmensis de Indiæ utriusque Re Naturali et Medica Libri quatuordecim quorum contenta pagina sequens exhibet.....Amsteledami.
Folio, 17. 8s.

With an engraved title, and numerous wood cuts. The contents as follows:

1. G. Pisonis Historiæ Naturalis & Medicæ Indiæ Occidentalis Libri V. (This appears to be an augmented edition of the work mentioned under 1648.)
2. Geo. Maregravii de Liebstad, Tractatus Topographicus & Meteorologicus Brasilæ cum Eclipsi Solari; quibus additi sunt Illius et aliorum Commentarii de Brasiliensium & Chilensium Indole & Lingua.

3. Jacobi Bontii Historæ Naturalis & Medicæ Indiæ Orientalis Libri VI. &c.
4. G. Pisonis Mantissa aromatica, sive de Aromatum cardinalibus quatuor, et plantis aliquot Indicis in medicinam receptis, relatio nova.

- 312 HISTOIRE NATURELLE et morale des Isles Antilles de l'Amerique enrichies de plusieurs belles figures des raretez les plus considerables qui y sont ecrites. Avec un vocabulaire caraibe.
4to. 16s. Rotterdam.

First edition, reprinted in 1665, 1667, and in 1681. In English in 1666. This is the work which Father du Tertre refers to (see 1654), and which he says, in his Histoire generale (1667) is so faithfully copied, with a few exceptions, from his writings, that even his faults had not been omitted. The dedication is signed L. de P. supposed by Barbier to be Louis de Poincy, and the true author of the work, notwithstanding that the name of Rocheport is inserted as the author in the second and succeeding editions; but Father Du Tertre says, in the preface to his Histoire generale, that while he was printing his first work the General Lonvilliers de Poincy had begged Father Raimond Breton, to give his vocabulary and some memoirs to an unknown person, who was collecting materials for a Relation of the Antilles; and that he afterwards learnt that this person was M. Rocheport, a minister of Rotterdam, who having been twice to the islands, had conceived a similar design to himself. This account appears to be more probable than the supposition of Barbier.

- 313 DISCURSO POLITICO HISTORICO JURIDICO. Del derecho y Repartimiento de presas y despojos apprehendidos en justa guerra. Premios y castigos de los soldados. Por Don Juan Franco. de Montemaior de Cuenca. Oydor mas antiguo que fué de la Real Audiencia de Santo Domingo, Governador y Capitan General de la isla Española y de la Tortuga, y oi Oydor de la Rl. Chancelleria de MexicoMexico.
Quarto, 2l. 10s.

This work was written in consequence of the part which the author took in the defence of St. Domingo, when attacked by Cromwell's fleet, under Penn and Venables, in the year 1655. Nicolas Antonio has confounded this work with the following of the same author, both of which are of great rarity.

Summaria investigacion de el origen y privilegios de los Ricos Hombres o Nobles, Cavalleros, Infanzones o Hijos dalgo y Señores de Vasallos de Aragon, y del absoluto poder que en ellos tienen. Parte primera. Escribiola Don Juan Francisco de Montemayor de Cuenca, &c.

4to. 2l. 2s.

The licences, &c. are dated in 1664, but my copy contains, after the address to the reader, a letter from the author to the "Reyno de Aragon," accompanying a copy of the work dated "Mexico Febrero 25, 1665, with an answer dated Zaragoza, Octr. 20, 1665. The 2d. part was apparently never published. Mayans speaks of the rarity and intrinsic value of this work.

1659.

- 314 (1) AMERICA PAINTED TO THE LIFE. The true History of the Spaniards proceedings in the Conquests of the Indians, and of their civil wars among themselves from Columbus his first Discovery, to these later times. As also of the original Undertakings of the advancement of Plantations into those parts; with a perfect Relation of our English discoveries, shewing their beginning, progress, and continuance, from the year 1628 to 1658. Declaring the forms of their Government, Policies, Religions, Manners, Customs, Military Discipline, Wars with the Indians, the Commodities of their Countries, a description of their towns and havens, the increase of their trading, with the names of their Governors and Magistrates. More especially an absolute Narrative of the North parts of America, and of the discoveries and plantations of our English in Virginia, New-England, and Berbadoes. Publisht by Ferdinando Gorges, Esq. A work now at last exposed for the publick good, to stir up the heroick and active spirits of these times, to benefit their Countrey, and eternize their names by such honorable attempts. For the reader's clearer understanding of the Countreys, they are lively described in a compleat and exquisite Map.
- (2.) A brief Narration of the originall undertakings of the advancement of Plantations into the parts of America. Especially shewing the beginning, progress, and continuance of that of New-England. Written by the right Worshipfull Sir Ferdinando Gorges, Knight and Governor of the Fort and Island of Plymouth, in Devonshire.
- (3.) America painted to the Life. A true history of the originall Undertakings, &c. (as in (1.) More especially an absolute narrative of the north parts of America, and of the discoveries and plantations of our English in New-England. Written by Sir Ferdinando Gorges, Knight, &c., one of the first and chieftest promoters of those plantations. Publisht since his disease by his Grandchild, Ferdinando Gorges, Esq., who hath much enlarged it, and added severall accurate descriptions of his owne. A work now, &c. (as in (1.)

- (4.) America painted to the Life. The History of the Spaniards proceedings in America, their conquests of the Indians, and of their civil wars among themselves. From Columbus his first discovery to these later times. By Ferdinando Gorges, Esq. London.

Small 4to. 2l. 16s.

These four works were all printed separately, (the second and third in 1658,) but I believe are always found together. There is an index at the end, which refers to the four parts, but without any distinguishing mark, by which the reader may ascertain in which book the article referred to is to be found. It is altogether a very singular performance, containing a great deal of important information, relative to the early history of New England, and particularly of the district of Maine, which was granted originally to the author's grand father, by whom the second work was written. Not the least singular circumstance relating to this work, perhaps, is the manner in which Ferdinando Gorges, Esq. has appropriated to himself the authorship of a work written by another, as appears by the following extract from Prince's New England. (See 1736.)

"When I went to England, I met with a great variety of Books and Pamphlets relating to this country. Among others, in a history of New England, from 1628 to 1651, printed in 4to. London, 1654, I found many particulars of the beginning of our several churches, towns and colonies, which appear in no other writer. The running title of the book is, "Wonder working Providence," &c. and in the genuine title page, no author is named. Some of the books were faced with a false title page, wherein the work is wrongly assigned to Sir F. Georges: but the true author was Mr. Johnson, of Woburn, in New England, as the late judge Sewall assured me, as of a thing familiarly known among the fathers of the Massachusetts's Colony." The third of these books being neither more nor less than the identical history of New England, (see 1654,) with merely a new title page and dedication. The first and second books are spoken of in the North American Review, vol. ii, p. 289, &c.; but in an inverted order. The title of the first book, as given there, is the same as the title to the third, in my copy. Besides the map, there is a portrait of a young Indian woman, with a human leg in her hand; a folding plate, inscribed

AMERICA.

'Tis I, in tempting divers, for to try,
By sundry meanes, t' obtaine me, caus' de them dye;
And, last discover'd, undiscover'd am;
For men, to treade my soyle, as yet, are lame.

- 315 INFORME à N. R. P. M. General de el orden de Predicadores, Fr. Jhoan Baptista de Marinis. Le ofrece el Press^{do}. F. Antonio Gonçalez de Acuña, Dr. Cathedratico de prima de moral, Procurador de la Real Universidad de los Reyes. Difinidor de la Provincia de S. Jhoan Baptista de el Peru en su nombre.

4to. 4l. 4s.

With an engraved title, but no printer's name. Evidently printed exclusively for the use of the order of Preachers, and consequently of great rarity. The author appears to have made a voyage from Lima to Spain, to give this account of the state of the religion of his order in South America, to his superiors. It is not mentioned by Nicolas Antonio; and Barcia, who collected every thing relating to America, evidently never saw the book.

- 316* OF THE GOSPEL amongst the Indians in New-England, being a relation of the confessions made by several Indians, in order to their admission into church fellowship. Sent over to the corporation for propagating the Gospel among the Indians in New-England, in London. By Mr. John Eliot, one of the laborers amongst them*London*.
Small 4to.

Apparently the fourth tract published by the corporation.

1660.

- 317 JEWS IN AMERICA; or Probabilities, that those Indians are Judaical, made more probable by some Additionals to the former conjectures. An accurate Discourse is premised by Mr. John Elliot (who first preached the Gospel to the Natives in their own Language) touching their Origination, and his Vindication of the Planters. Psal. lix. 11, &c. Tho. Thorowgood, S. T. B. Norfolciensis*London*.
Small 4to. 1l. 10s.

The second part of Thorowgood's work, but not being so stated on the title page, it has been frequently mistaken for another edition of the first part, printed in 1650.

- 318 THE HUMBLE PETITION and Address of the General Court sitting at Boston, in New England, unto the high and mighty

Small 4to. pp. 8. 12s.

Signed John Endecot, Governor, in the name and with the consent of the general court.

- 319 A DECLARATION of the sad and great Persecution and Martyrdom of the People of God, called Quakers, in New England, for the worshipping of God, whereof 22 have been banished upon pain of death, 3 have been martyred, &c. Also some considerations, presented to the King, which is in Answer to a petition and address which was presented unto him by the general Court at Boston, subscribed by J. Endicot, the chief persecutor there; thinking thereby to cover themselves from the blood of the innocent London.

Small 4to. pp. 32, 16s.

Signed E. B. and written in consequence of the foregoing petition.

- 320 NEW ENGLAND'S VINDICATION. Shewing the misunderstanding of the apprehension to take all that vast Countrey under the notion of a particular place of one pattent of Boston, the Metropolitan of the Machechusets there, who in these late times have acted as a free state and illegal proceeding, as by the many books and complaints by petition have caused an odium on the countrey in general in vindication to manifest the worth of the countrey in general, it is as hopeful to enlarge his Majesty's dominions, as if all the Baltick seas were annexed to his empire. By Henry Gardener, Merchant, whose father was one of the first adventurers thither, and into other parts of America. London.

Small 4to. 18s.

Badly printed, and written in so uncouth a style, that it is hard to come at the author's meaning.

- 321 CASPARIS BARLÆI, rerum per octennium in Brasilia et alibi gestarum sub præfectura Illust. Comitis J. Mauritiæ Nassaviæ, &c. Comitis, Historia. Editio Secunda. Cui accesserunt G. Pisonis, tractatus de Aeribus aquis & locis in Brasilia, etc. Clivis.

Small 8vo. 12s.

With an engraved title, and several folding plates and maps. See No. 257.

- 322* A SOMMARY DESCRIPTION, manifesting that greater profits are to bee done in the hot then in the could parts off the coast off America: and how much the public good is concerned therein referring to the annexed advertisement for men inclined to Plantations.

Printed for Sir Balthazar Gerbier Kyt Douvilly.

4to. 8 leaves.

This tract was apparently printed abroad: it refers to an advertisement "which was printed at Rotterdam," and should accompany it.

1661.

- 323 AN HISTORICAL and Geographical Description of the great country and river of the Amazonas, in America. Drawn out of divers authors, and reduced into a better forme; with a Mapp of the River, and of its Provinces, being that place which Sir Walter Rawleigh intended to conquer and plant, when he made his voyage to Guiana. Written in French by the Count of Pagan, and dedicated to Cardinall Mazarine, in order to a conquest by the Cardinals motion to be undertaken. And now translated into English by William Hamilton, and humbly offered to his Majesty as worthy his consideration..... London.
8vo. map, 16s.

This work was published in French, in 1655. Meusel states the author to have been Christopher de Rennes, "a Spanish jesuit." Barcia says that it is a paraphrase of all that had been previously written on the subject. It is quite evident, however, that the work of Acuña (No. 234) was the principal source from whence the author derived the greater part of his information, whole chapters being translated without any acknowledgment. The present copy is from the "Bibliothèque de la Chevalière d'Eon."

- 324 NEW ENGLAND JUDGED, not by Man's, but the Spirit of the Lord: and the summe sealed up of New-England's persecutions. Being a brief relation of the people called Quakers in those parts of America, from the beginning of the fifth month, 1656, (the time of their first arrival at Boston from England), to the later end of the tenth moneth, 1660, &c. In answer to a certain printed paper, intituled, a Declaration of the General Court of the Massachusetts, holden at Boston the 18 October, 1658. Apologizing for the same. By George Bishope..... London.
Small 4to. 16s.

second part of this work appears to have been printed in 1667.

Both were reprinted, somewhat abbreviated, with an appendix, &c. in 1703.

- 325 JAMAICA VIEWED: with all the Ports, Harbours, and their several soundings, towns, and settlements thereunto belonging, together with the nature of its climate, fruitfulness of the soile, and its suitableness to English complexions. With several other collateral Observations and Reflections upon the Island. The 2d. edition London.

Small 8vo. map, 12s,

The dedication is signed Edm. Hickeringill. From the third edition, printed in 1705, it appears that the first edition was printed in the same year with the second.

- 326 THE NEW TESTAMENT of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, Translated into the Indian Language, and ordered to be printed by the Commissioners of the United Colonies in New England, at the charge and with the consent of the Corporation in England, for the propagation of the Gospel amongst the Indians in New England. Cambridge.
Small 4to. 2l. 2s.

This copy of Eliot's translation of the New Testament into the Indian language, has the dedication to Charles II., which, according to Thomas, was only inserted in the twenty copies sent to England as presents. The translation of the Old Testament, together with the New England version of the Psalms, was printed in 1663. For a full account of the different editions of the Indian bible, copies of the dedications, &c. see Thomas's History of Printing, vol. i., p. 469, &c.

not to be tolerated in a regular history, particularly after they have

them called Charles-River, the 29th of May, 1664. Wherein is set forth the healthfulness of the air; the fertility of the earth, and waters; and the great pleasure and profit will accrue to those that shall go thither to enjoy the same. Also directions and advice to such as shall go thither, whether on their own accompts, or to serve under another. Together with a most accurate Map of the whole Province .. London. 4to. pp. 10, and map, 1*l.* 16*s.*

Rendered into English by John Davies, of Kidwelly London. Folio, plates, 1*l.* 4*s.*

This work is a translation of the "Histoire naturelle et morale des Antilles." Rotterdam, 1658 & 1665, attributed to De Rochefort. Having been printed just before the great fire in London, is probably the reason of its being rarely found perfect, and in good condition.

- 340* A CHARACTER of the Province of Maryland, wherein is described in four distinct parts.—I. The Scituation and plenty of the Province.—II. The laws, customs, and natural demeanour of the Inhabitants.—III. The worst and best usage of a Maryland servant, opened in view.—IV. The traffique and vendable commodities of the Country. Also a small treatise on the wild and naked Indians (or Susque Hanokes), of Maryland, their customs, manners, absurdities, and religion. Together with a collection of Historical letters. learn the same, for the furtherance of the Gospel among them. By John Eliot. Cambridge, N. E.
Small 4to. pp. 65.

Thomas says there is no date to this book, but supposes it to have been printed about 1664 : but the Bib. Am. Primordia gives 1666, which appears to have been the date of the dedication to the R. H. Robert Boyle.

1667.

Meusel, there was an account of the New Netherlands printed in 1650, and another by Adrian Vander Donck in 1656.

The conquest of the vast empires of Mexico and Peru, and other large Provinces and territories, with the several European plantations in those parts. Also their cities, fortresses, towns, temples, mountains, and rivers. Their habits, customs, manners, and religions. Their plants, beasts, birds, and serpents. With an Appendix, containing, besides several other considerable additions, a brief survey of what hath been discovered of the Unknown South Land and the Arctick Region. Collected from the most authentick Authors, augmented with later observations, and adorned with Maps and Sculptures, by John Ogilby, Esq., His Majesty's Cosmographer, Geographick Printer, &c. London.

Folio, 1l 8s. LARGE PAPER, 4l. 4s.

This volume contains 57 plates and maps, exclusive of a greater number inserted in the text. They appear to be impressions from the plates engraved in Holland for Montanus' work on America in Dutch, published also in this year, and which were also used in the German work of O. Dapper in 1673. The large paper copy is a ponderous tome indeed.

- 353 DE NIEUWE en Onbekende Weereld: op beschryving van America en't zuidland, &c. Door Arnoldus Montanus.

Folio, 1l. 4s. Amsterdam.

The plates in this volume are the same as in Ogilby's work, but the impressions are far superior.

- 354 RELATION de ce qui s'est passé, dans les îsles & terre-ferme de l'Amerique, pendant la dernière guerre avec l'Angleterre, & depuis en execution du Traité de Breda. Avec un journal 12mo. 2 vols 15s.

Barbier says the initials of the author stand for "J. Clodoré, Secrétaire de Vaisseau." The Sieur de Clodoré, governor of Martinique, plays a considerable part throughout the book, and may have been the author of it.

- 355* A BRIEF NARRATIVE of the Progress of the Gospel among the Indians in New England in the year 1670. Given in by the Rev. Mr. John Eliot, Minister of the Gospel there, in a letter by him directed to the Right Worshipful the Commissioners under his Majesty's great seal, for the propagation of the Gospel amongst the poor blind natives in those United Colonies. London.
Small 4to. pp. 11.

The corporation for propagating the gospel among the Indians was dissolved on the restoration of Charles II. A Commission under the great seal was established for the same purpose some years after, and this is apparently their first publication.

1672.

- 356 NEW ENGLAND'S RARITIES DISCOVERED: in Birds, Beasts, Fishes, Serpents, and Plants of that Country. Lastly, a chronological table of the most remarkable passages in that country amongst the English. Illustrated with cuts. By John Josselyn, Gent. London.

- 358 THE DISCOVERIES OF JOHN LEDERER in three several marches from Virginia to the west of Carolina, and other parts of the Continent: begun in March 1669 and ended in September 1670. Together with a general Map of the whole territory which he traversed. Collected and translated out of Latine from his discourse and writings, by Sir William Talbot, Bart. Small 4to. map, 1l. 4s. London.

Lederer was a German, who, it appears, was looked upon with great jealousy by the Virginians, and in consequence was obliged to take refuge in Maryland, where Sir William Talbot became acquainted with him, "though then ill affected to the man by the stories that went about of him: nevertheless, finding him contrary to my expectation, a modest ingenious person, and a pretty scholar, I thought it common justice to give him an occasion of vindicating himself from what I had heard of him; which truly he did with so convincing reason and circumstance, as quite abolished those former impressions in me, and made me desire this account of his travels, which here you have faithfully rendred out of Latine from his own writings and discourse, with an entire map of the territory he traversed, copied from his own hand."—3d leaf.

Taken from the notes of Sir Thomas Linch, Governor of Jamaica; and other experienced persons in the said places. Illustrated with maps. Published by Richard Blome ... London.

"The relation is curious and faithful ; but in many places where the author makes his own remarks, there are the oddest uncouth expressions imaginable, which look very conceited, but that is only as to his style."—Churchill. Introduction.

from Rio Amasones, and ending on the North of Terra Nova. Described by Arent Roggeveen Amsterdam. Folio, 31 charts, 2l. 2s.

This Atlas, for the use of navigators, was probably first published in Dutch: the names on the charts being principally in that language. A Spanish translation was printed in 1680.

- 367 GAZOPHILATIUM Regium Perubicum. I. Administrandum. II. Calculandum. III. Conservandum. Edytum à Don Gaspare de Scalona Aguero I. C. Argentino Peruano, &c. Madrid. Folio, 1l. 1s.

This work was first printed in 1647, and was reprinted in 1755. It is a compendium of what was necessary to be known to the officers of the crown, on going to South America. The second part of the work is in Spanish.

- 368 A BRIEF HISTORY of the War with the Indians in New-England, from June 24, 1675, (when the first Englishman was murdered by the Indians), to August 12, 1676. When Philip, alias Metacomet, the principal author and beginner of the war, was slain. Wherein the grounds, beginning, and progress of the War is summarily expressed. Together with a serious exhortation to the Inhabitants of that Land. By Increase Mather, teacher of a church of Christ, in Boston, in New England Boston. Small 4to. pp. 66, 18s.

- 369 ————— another edition London. Small 4to. pp. 66. 18s.

- 370 THE PRESENT STATE OF NEW ENGLAND, with respect to the Indian war. Wherein is an account of the true reason thereof (as far as can be judged by men.) Together with most of the remarkable passages that have happened from the 20th of June, till the 10th of November, 1675. Faithfully composed by a merchant of Boston, and communicated to his Friend in London London. Folio, 20 pp.

- 371 A CONTINUATION of the state of New-England; being a farther account of the Indian Warr, and of the engagement betwixt the joynt forces of the United English Colonies, and the Indians, on the 10th Decr, 1675. With the true number of the slain and wounded, and the transactions of the English army since the said fight. With all other passages that have there hapned from the 10th Novr. 1675, to the 8th Feb. 1675-6: together with an account of the intended rebellion of the negroes in the Barbadoes London.

Flio, 20 pp.

- 372 A NEW AND FURTHER NARRATIVE of the State of New England, being a continued account of the bloody Indian war, from March, till August, 1676, giving a perfect relation of the several devastations, engagements and transactions there; as also the great successes lately obtained against the barbarous Indians, the reducing of King Philip, and the killing of one of the queens. Together with a catalogue of the losses in the whole sustained on either side, since the said war begun, as near as can be collected London.
Folio, pp. 16.

The three foregoing relations of the war with the Indians, usually called King Philip's war, were all written by the same person. They were all printed for Dorman Newman. The following, printed for Benjamin Billingsley, is by a different hand, and was written because what had been made public from the beginning, relating to that affair, hath not been represented so exactly as it might have been.

- 373 A TRUE ACCOUNT of the most considerable occurrences that have hapned in the Warre between the English and the Indians in New England, from the 5th of May, 1676, to the 4th of August last; as also of the successes it hath pleased God to give the English against them: as it hath been communicated by letters to a friend in London. The most exact account yet printed..... London.

Folio, pp. 8.

- 374 NEWS FROM NEW ENGLAND, being a true and last account of the present bloody wars, carried on betwixt the infidels natives, and the English Christians, and converted Indians of New England, declaring the many dreadful battles fought betwixt them: as also the many towns and villages burnt by the merciless heathens. And also the true number of all the Christians slain since the beginning of that war, as it was sent over by a factor of New England, to a Merchant in London..... London.

Small 4to. pp. 8, 12s.

- 375 A NARRATIVE of the Troubles with the Indians in New England, from the first planting thereof in the year 1607 to this present year 1677 : but chiefly of the late troubles in the two last years 1675 and 1676. To which is added, a discourse about the war with the Pequods, in the year 1637. By W. Hubbard, Minister of Ipswich. " And the Lord, &c." Exod. xvii. 14. Boston, N.E.
Small 4to. map, 1l. 10s.

The wood cut map, which is frequently wanting, has this inscription, " A Map of New England, being the first that ever was here cut, and done by the best pattern that could be had, which being in some places defective, it made the other less exact ; yet doth it sufficiently show the scituation of the country, and conveniently well the distance of places," &c. At the end of this book is a sermon by Hubbard, printed in 1676, by the same printer, John Foster, which, according to Thomas, must be one of the first books printed in Boston, all the printing in the British colonies, previously to 1676, having been done at Cambridge, where a press was established in 1638, and the first book printed, a version of the Psalms ; for a very interesting account of which, see Thomas' History of Printing in America, vol. i, p. 221, &c. The title page to the sermon is as follows :

The happiness of a people in the wisdom of their rulers directing, and in the obedience of their brethren attending unto what Israel ought to do : recommended in a sermon before the Honourable Governour and Council, and the respected Deputies of the Massachusetts Colony, in New England. Preached at Boston, May 3d, 1676, being the day of election there. By William Hubbard, Minister of Ipswich.
Boston: printed by John Foster. 1676.

- 376 THE PRESENT STATE of New England, being a Narrative, &c. (as above).....London.
Small 4to. 1l. 10s.

An exact reprint of the foregoing.

- 377 A RELATION of the Troubles which have hapned in New England by reason of the Indians there. From the year 1614 to the year 1675. Wherein the frequent conspiracies of the Indians to cut off the English, and the wonderful providence of God, in disappointing their devices, is declared. Together with an historical discourse concerning the prevalency of prayer, shewing that New England's late deliverance from the rage of the heathen is an eminent answer of prayer.

By Increase Mather, Teacher of a Church in Boston, in New England Boston.
Small 4to. pp. 96.

This appears to be one of the scarcest of Mather's tracts, apparently not having been reprinted in London. In the preface it is stated, that "this following relation was written neer upon a year ago; since which a reverend author* hath emitted a narrative of the troubles which have happened by the Indians in New England, whose pains and industry doth (in my judgement) deserve acknowledgement. Nevertheless it hath been thought needfull to publish this: considering that most of the things here insisted on, are not so much as once taken notice of in that narrative. And although the Pequot was to be therein described (and that as to the substance of the story, truly and impartially) it is not so fully done as is here to be seen."

* Mr. Hubbard. See No. 375.

378* THE WAR IN NEW ENGLAND visibly ended. King Philip, that barbarous Indian, now beheaded, and most of his bloody adherents submitted to mercy; the rest fled far up into the country, which hath given the inhabitants encouragement to prepare for their settlement. Being a true and perfect account brought in by Caleb More, master of a vessel newly arrived from Rhode Island London,
Folio, pp. 6.

379* STRANGE NEWS FROM VIRGINIA: being a full and true account of the life and death of Nathaniel Bacon, Esq. who was the only cause and original of all the late troubles in that country. With a full relation of all the accidents which have happened in the late war there, between the Christians and Indians London.
Small 4to. pp. 8.

Madrid.

This book is a compendium of Barros, and other Portuguese writers on India : and includes an account of the discovery of Brazil, &c. This copy is from the library of the poet Waller, and the initials E. W. on the title page are probably in his hand writing. This library was sold at Beaconsfield, while this sheet of this catalogue was preparing for the press.

Tiré fidelement des memoires des habitans des mêmes colonies, en faveur de ceus, qui auroient le dessein de s'y transporter pour s'y etablir Rotterdam.

Quarto, 1l. 8s.

This edition of Rochfort appears to be the same as the second printed in 1665, with a new title page : the "Recit de l'etat present," &c. consists of 44 pages, with a separate title, placed at the end of the work. It contains one of the earliest accounts of Pennsylvania, which was first established in this year.

First edition of the Recopilacion of the Laws of the Indies. The first volume contains an edict of Charles II. dated in 1680, ordering the publication, and containing an account of the different collections, which had been previously published. That of Charles V. in 1543, is not mentioned, the earliest being the collection of Puga, printed in Mexico, in 1563. The same edict annuls all former laws.

Melendez was born in Peru, and was sent from thence to Madrid and Rome, as agent for his order, and came prepared to write its history. Leaving out the miraculous part, and the long accounts of persons who died in the odour of sanctity, and whose canonisation he was instructed to procure at Rome, the work contains a great deal of important matter relating to the history of South America, both geographical and political. It is considered in Spain as a very rare book.

The first edition of this Spanish translation of the History of the Buccaneers, was printed at the same place the preceding year, in quarto, with plates. It was reprinted at Madrid in 1793.

The original work was published at Amsterdam in 1678, with the title of "De Americaensche Zee Roovers."

Two editions of an English translation, apparently from the Spanish, were published in 1684, and another in 1695. A French translation from the English, was first printed in 1686, and frequently reprinted with additions. The work was written by John Esquemeling, himself a Buccaneer. In the French translation the author is called Alexander Olivier Oexmelin!—but I have not been able to discover if both are intended for the same person.

- 408 HISTORIA DE LA CONQUISTA DE MEXICO, Poblacion y progresos de la America septentrional, conocida por el nombre de Nueva España. Escribivala D. Antonio de Solis, Chronista mayes de Indias, etc. Madrid.

Folio, 1l. 8s. LARGE PAPER, 2l. 2s.

First edition, frequently reprinted: the best edition is that of Sancha Madrid, 1785, in two volumes quarto. Translated into most of the modern languages; in English by Townsend, in 1724. Solis is highly esteemed by the Spaniards for the beauty of his style, and the purity of his language; and in these respects is considered as one of the most classical writers Spain has produced. His merits as a historian have been better estimated by foreigners, and by no one with more judgment than by Robertson, who describes him as "destitute of that patient industry in research, which conducts to the knowledge of truth; a stranger to that impartiality which weighs evidence with cool attention, and ever eager to establish his favorite system of exalting the character of Cortes into that of a perfect hero, exempt from error, and adorned with every virtue, he is less solicitous to discover what was true, than to relate what might appear splendid." Solis' work ends with the surrender of Mexico, and capture of Guatimozin. D. Ignacio Salazar y Olarte, published a second part in 1743, continuing the history to the death of Cortes.

409* THE PLANTERS speech to his neighbors and countrymen of Pensylvania, East and West Jersey; and to all such as have transported themselves into new Colonies for the sake of a quiet retired life. To which is added the complaints of our supra-interior-inhabitants London.

12mo. pp. 73.

410* BUCANIERS OF AMERICA; or a true account of the most remarkable assaults committed of late years upon the coasts of the West Indies, by the Bucaniers of Jamaica and Tortuga, both English and French. Wherein are contained more especially the unparalleled exploits of Sir Henry Morgan, our English Jamaican Hero, who sackt Puerto Velo, burnt Panama, &c. Written originally in Dutch by John Esquemeling, one of the Bucaniers, who was present at those tragedies, and translated into Spanish by Alonso de Bonne Maison, M.D. &c. The second edition corrected and enlarged with two additional relations, viz. the one of Captain Cooke, and the other of Captain Sharp. Now faithfully rendered into English London.

Quarto, plates.

See No. 393. The title of the first edition, printed in the same year, is stated in the Retrospective Review, vol. ix. to be as follows:

- 411* THE HISTORY OF THE BUCANIERS: being an impartial relation of all the Battles, Sieges, and other most eminent assaults committed for several years upon the coasts of the West Indies, by the Pirates of Jamaica and Tortuga: both English and other nations. More especially the unparalleled achievements of Sir H. M. Made English from the Dutch copy: written by J. Esquemeling, one of the Bucaniers: very much corrected from the errors of the original by the relations of some English gentlemen, that then resided in those parts.

Den Engelseman is een Duyvil voor een mensch.

Quarto.

London.

From the difference in the titles, and the publishers being different, it is possible that these may have been different translations: the present from the Dutch, and the preceding from the Spanish. See 1695 and 1793.

1685.

- 412 BUCANIERS OF AMERICA. The second volume. Containing the dangerous voyage and bold attempts of Captain Bartholomew Sharp and others, performed upon the coasts of the South Sea, for the space of two years, &c. From the original journal of the said voyage. Written by Mr. Basil Ringrose, Gent., who was all along at those transactions. London.

Quarto, 1l. 8s.

This was published as a second volume, or fourth part of the History of the Buccaneers. It is considered as rare, the first three parts being generally found without it.

With an account of the discovery, scituation, product, and other excellencies of these countries. To which is prefixed, a relation of the first discovery of the New World, called America, by the Spaniards. And of the remarkable voyages of several Englishmen to divers places therein. The translator was not probably aware that it had already been published in English, by Hakluyt, in 1609.

Folio, 2l. 10s.

The licences are dated in Madrid in 1688, but there appears to be no reason to doubt of its having been printed in Antwerp, as expressed on the title. Alcedo says, that this work will always be esteemed for the eloquence of its style and the truth and judgment with which it is written. Its author, on his way to his bishoprick, was taken prisoner by Morgan, the pirate, about the time of the sacking of Panama.

He afterwards made a voyage from Holland to China through the same Streights and returned the same way; so that the greater part of this book is from his own observation.

- 431 LATE MEMORABLE PROVIDENCES relating to Witchcraft and Possessions, clearly manifesting not only that there are Witches, but that good men (as well as others) may possibly have their lives shortened by such evil instruments of Satan. Written by Cotton Mather, Minister of the Gospel at Boston, in New England. The second impression. Recommended by the Rev. Mr. Richard Baxter in London, and by the Ministers of Boston and Charlestown in N. E. London.

The "pious and diligent Cotton Mather, who in one year composed and published fourteen books, and kept sixty fasts and twenty-two vigils," states in this book, that "in order to be furnished with evidence and argument, as a critical eye-witness, to confute the Sadducism of this debauched age," he took into his house the eldest of a bewitched family of children, and states, among other things, "that an invisible chain would be clapt about her, and she in much pain and fear cry out when (they) began to put it on. Once I did with my own hands knock it off, as it began to be fastened about her." Cotton Mather appears to have been the principal mover of the prosecutions against the unfortunate persons condemned as witches in New England. He published another book on the subject in 1693. Both of these were ably refuted, and the credulity and fanaticism of their author exposed by Calef in 1700.

- 432 THE LIFE AND DEATH of the renowned Mr. John Eliot, who was the first preacher of the Gospel to the Indians in America. Helena. Their soil, rivers, harbours, plants, fruits, animals, and inhabitants. Their customs, religion, government, trade, &c. By William Dampier. Illustrated with particular maps and draughts.....London.

8vo. 3 vols. 1l. 16s.

Vol. 2 was first published in 1699; part 1 of vol. 3 in 1703, and part 2 in 1709. They were several times reprinted, the edition of 1729, in 4 volumes, being esteemed the most complete.

Dampier's first voyages were made with the Buccaneers, but the account he published in 1697 gave such evidences of his abilities that he was appointed to the command of H. M. ship Roebuck, and sent on a voyage of discovery to New Holland, &c., an account of which is contained in the third volume. Captain Dampier made another voyage to the South Sea in 1703, of which his mate, William Funnell, returning before him, published an account in 1707, which usually forms the fourth volume of Dampier's voyages. Soon after his return, Dampier published a small memoir, under the title of Captain Dampier's Vindication of his Voyage in the Ship St. George; with some small observations for the present on Mr. Funnell's chimerical relation. London, 1707.

Dampier's next voyage, and the last of which there is any account of his having been engaged in, was with Woodes Rogers, round the world, in the humble capacity of pilot!—"What afterwards became of him is not known, but there is no reason to believe that he was secured from indigence in his latter days. It is not easy to name another Voyager or Traveller who has given more useful information to the world; to whom the Merchant and Mariner are so much indebted ; or who has communicated his information in a more unembarrassed and intelligible manner. And this he has done in a style perfectly unassuming, equally free from affectation, and from the most distant appearance of invention. It is with peculiar justness of feeling that the author of the Navigation aux Terres Australes, speaking of him, demands, "mais ou trouve t'on des Navigateurs comparables à Dampier ?"—Burney.

- 452 VOYAGES AND DISCOVERIES in South America. The first up the River of Amazons to Quito, in Peru, and back again to Brazil, performed at the command of the King of Spain, by Christopher d'Acugna. The second up the River of Plata, and thence by land to the mines of Potosi. By Mons. Acarete. The third from Cayenne, into Guiana, in search of the Lake of Parima, reputed the richest place in the World. By M. Grillet and Bechamel. Done into English from the originals, being the only accounts of those parts hitherto extant. The whole illustrated with notes and maps..... London.

8vo. 8s.

The work of Acuña, although stated to be done into English from the original, is evidently taken from Gomberville's French translation : all the Spanish proper names having a French termination. The relation of Acarete is apparently translated from Thevenot's collection. It does not appear from whence the relation of Grillet and Bechamel (in 1674) was taken.

Father Hennepin calls this his third volume, referring to the one published in 1683 as the first, and to the preceding (No. 454.) as the second: although this is merely an augmented edition of the first. The maps and plates in these editions are far superior to those in the following English translation:

- 456 A NEW DISCOVERY of a vast country in America, extending above four thousand miles, between New France and New Mexico. With a description of the great lakes, cataracts, rivers, plants, and animals; also the manners, customs, and languages of the several native Indians, and the advantage of commerce with those different nations. With a continuation, giving an account of the attempts of the Sieur de la Salle upon the mines of St. Barbe, &c. The taking of Quebec by the English; with the advantages of a shorter cut to China and Japan. Both parts illustrated with maps and figures, and dedicated to his Majesty K. William. By L. Hennepin, now resident in Holland. To which is added several new discoveries in North America, not published in the French edition London.

8vo. 12s.

Father Hennepin, after his return to France, appears to have suffered considerable persecution, which he attributes to the jealousy of M. de la Salle, by whom he was commissioned to explore the Mississippi. He at length retired to Holland, not, as Charlevoix says, out of disgust, at not being allowed to return to America, but by an order obtained by his superiors, on account of his obstinacy in refusing to return to America as a Missionary, banishing him from France. In Holland he dedicated the new account of his discoveries to William III. soliciting him to conquer those vast regions, to send out colonies, and to cause the Gospel to be preached to the infidels. This proceeding, says Charlevoix, scandalized the Catholics and made even the Protestants laugh, to see a priest calling himself an apostolical notary and missionary, exhorting a heretic prince to establish a church in the new world. Father Hennepin was not one of those who hide their candle under a bushel, and provided he obtained his end, does not appear to have been over scrupulous in the means. Charlevoix says, that he thought himself entitled to make use of the traveller's privilege, and that in Canada his work was thought very little of, those who accompanied him having often declared, that there was very little truth in his histories. But Father Charlevoix was of a different parish. Father Hennepin himself declares before God, that his relation is faithful and sincere, and that full faith may be given to every thing reported in it.

At the end of this volume is an account of the discoveries of M. Joliet and Father Marquette, probably translated from the octavo collection of Thevenot.
